

Just the Facts

*" Severe and progressive malnutrition has been a common complication of HIV/AIDS. Even with the heralded new treatments, many people do not regain weight normally. Adequate nutrition is key to restoration of health for persons with AIDS." -William G. Powderly, M.D. Former Co-Director, Division of Infectious Diseases
AIDS Clinical Trials Unit, Washington University School of Medicine*

" Some cancer treatments are more effective if the patient is well nourished and getting enough calories and protein in the diet. People who eat well during cancer treatment may even be able to handle higher doses of certain treatments. Being well-nourished has been linked to a better chance of recovery." -National Cancer Institute

MISSION

To provide nutritional support and enhance the quality of life of men, women, and children living with HIV/AIDS or Cancer.

HISTORY

FOOD OUTREACH started in October 1988 with seven clients in the pilot program.

FOOD OUTREACH, in fulfilling its mission, provides food and nutrition support to persons with HIV disease or Cancer:

- who are indigent,
- who find preparing meals difficult or impossible,
- who are in the workplace and can extend their employment by removing extraneous demands on their energy.

FOOD OUTREACH is the only St. Louis-area organization focused on providing nutritional support to men, women and children living with life threatening diseases, such as HIV or

LOCATION

FOOD OUTREACH's facility is conveniently located at 3117 Olive Street (near Compton Avenue), just three blocks east of Grand in the St. Louis midtown area. A security system ensures client and volunteer safety.

DISTRIBUTION AREA

FOOD OUTREACH provides services to clients in 137 Missouri and Illinois zip codes - encompassing a 200 mile radius.

PROGRAMS

PREPARED MEALS AND GROCERY PROGRAM

FOOD OUTREACH's one-stop service center provides a nutritious combination of prepared meals and groceries, year round, to men, women and children living with HIV/AIDS or cancer. Menu items, designed to create healthy meals, are selected by clients from a wide variety of frozen meals, groceries, produce and frozen meats. Food is either picked up by clients or delivered by volunteers to those unable to do so. Clients may choose from the types of foods that will best serve their needs, based on their current health status.

HOT MEAL MONDAYS

An on-site hot lunch program offers clients opportunities for fellowship and social interaction. Volunteers prepare and serve lunch to clients restaurant style. Additional nutrition and emotional support is provided through this program.

NUTRITION EDUCATION SERIES

Once a month, FOOD OUTREACH offers a Nutrition Education Series to its clients called Breakfast at FOOD OUTREACH. Each class offers a nutritious breakfast and a discussion about the importance of nutrition in the management of HIV/AIDS disease.

NUTRITION COUNSELING

Individual counseling and nutrition education are available to all clients.

EXPRESS YOURSELF! VOLUNTEERING AT FOOD OUTREACH

We need your help to carry out our mission. Food Outreach welcomes volunteers in every aspect of our program including cooking, packaging and delivering food, stocking and distributing groceries, serving hot meals and assisting in the office and with special events. Orientations for new volunteers are held periodically throughout the year. Long-term, short-term and intermittent opportunities are available. To find your "fit," please call our Volunteer Coordinator at 314.652.FOOD (3663).

STARTING SERVICE

A person diagnosed with HIV/AIDS disease or cancer may be referred to FOOD OUTREACH by a case manager or doctor. For assistance with services, call the FOOD OUTREACH office at 314.652.FOOD (3663).

MEALS PROVIDED

During 2008, FOOD OUTREACH provided 371,807 meals to 1,462 persons and enrolled 228 individuals new to our program. FOOD OUTREACH volunteers prepared, packed and labeled entrees, side dishes and desserts, and stocked and distributed groceries. FOOD OUTREACH hosted 48 weekly hot lunches, and volunteers or our van driver delivered meal orders to homebound clients. Food items prepared by volunteers include creole fish, pesto chicken, beef stroganoff, glazed pineapple ham, spinach and eggplant lasagna, seasoned greens, black-eyed peas, cheddar roasted potatoes, buttered broccoli, spiced carrots, okra, corn & tomatoes, and vegetable soup.

NUTRITION / QUALITY

FOOD OUTREACH is committed to providing its clients high-quality food that is nutritious and appealing. A registered dietitian is on staff to oversee menu design, provide nutritional assessments, education and classes. Menus change every two weeks, providing variety for clients whose tastes and needs change as they cycle up and down in illness. Client surveys provide input for menu development. Cooking volunteers and staff frequently participate in taste tests for quality purposes.
